MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD:

SUBJECT: Procurement of Intelligence by (Mrs. Dorothy L. Hale)

05

1. On 23 February 1963, I delivered to Mr. W. Lloyd of a memorandum and a list of transmittal, and 20 February respectively. Both were prepared by Ambassador Antonio Carrigues for Prince Stanislas Radziwill and taken to the latter in New York by Alfonso de Burton, 2d Secretary of the Spanish Embassy in Washington.
2. The purpose of the material was to enlist the aid of Radziwill in (a) persuading the President to visit Madrid during his next European trip, and (b) conveying to the President the views of Ambassador Carrigues regarding U. S. - Latin American relations.
3. Mr. George regarded the material too sensitive to be handled by routine means, and decided to show it only to Mr. Helms.
4. On 27 February 1963, Mr. George telephoned me to say that he had just shown the material to Mr. Helms who speculated whether he ought not take it to the White House at once. Mr. George disagreed, pointing out the sensitivity of the source (my wife), whereupon Mr. Helms indicated that nothing should be done with the material until Mr. George returned from a Foreign trip and could consider the matter further.
5. Mr. George then asked Mr. Helms whether my wife should register under the Foreign Agents Registration Act, and Mr. Helms said that under the circumstances she absolutely should not.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORDS

SUBJECT: Preparation of Intelligence by
Mrs. Dorothy L. Hale

1. On 23 February 1963, I delivered to Mr. H. Lloyd George, Chief, TL, two copies of a memorandum and a letter of transmittal dated 18 and 20 February respectively. Both were prepared by Ambassador Antonio Carrigas for Prince Stanislas Radziwill and taken to the latter in New York by Alfonso de Borja, 2d Secretary of the Spanish Embassy in Washington.

2. The purpose of the material was to enlist the aid of Radziwill in (a) permitting the President to visit Madrid during his next European trip, and (b) conveying to the President the views of Ambassador Carrigas regarding U. S. - Latin American relations.

3. Mr. George regarded the material too sensitive to be handled by routine means, and decided to show it only to Mr. Holmes.

4. On 27 February 1963, Mr. George telephoned me to say that he had just shown the material to Mr. Holmes who speculated whether he ought not take it to the White House at once. Mr. George disagreed, pointing out the sensitivity of the source (my wife), whereupon Mr. Holmes indicated that nothing should be done with the material until Mr. George returned from a five-day trip and could consider the matter further.

5. Mr. George then asked Mr. Holmes whether my wife should register under the Foreign Agents Registration Act, and Mr. Holmes said that under the circumstances she absolutely should not.
